

Collect for Output

This script will parse an Illustrator file looking for raster images or placed items. It will collect all these linked images in a destination folder, without moving the original files.

You can run this script in two ways:

1. Drag an Illustrator file or a folder containing Illustrator files onto the script.
2. Open an Illustrator file and then double-click on the script.